

ACADEMY registration

To be considered as registered, Shepherd Basketball Academy must have this registration form and the proper fees before the first training session. Each child will need to have a signed waiver by his/her parent or legal guardian before they participate.

After completing the registration/waiver information and paying a one-time assessment fee of $25, each player will then be assessed during their first training session. Three main criteria will be considered for acceptance: Attitude, work ethic and above average basketball skills (age appropriate). To maintain a high level of training, the academy only carries a total of 30 players.
